NATIONAL GUARD
MEET PROGRAMNumber of Special Events Scheduled.

KID SULLIVAN WILL BOX

Joe Grant and Rob Roy Mackey May
Meet in Wrestling Match.

The National Guard Athletic Association has announced the program for its annual indoor games which will be held in the armory next Tuesday night. Outside the regular track and field competitions for the Guardsmen the program includes a number of special events which should prove interesting.

It is announced that Joe Grant, the welterweight champion of the South, will meet Rob Roy Mackey on the mat. Also Kid Sullivan and his sparring partner will give an exhibition.

In addition to the strictly athletic part of the program are an exhibition by La Petite Alma, the human snake, and Robert Don in an exhibition of head and hand balancing. The National Guard Band will furnish music for the occasion.

The complete program follows:

First Honors, However, Nine
Pins Separating Them.

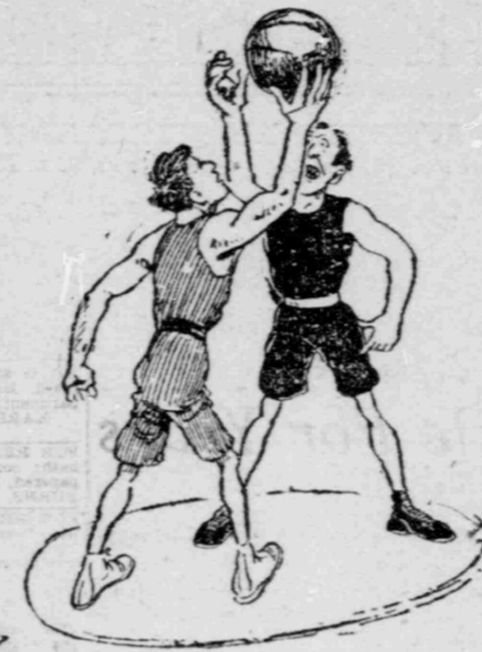

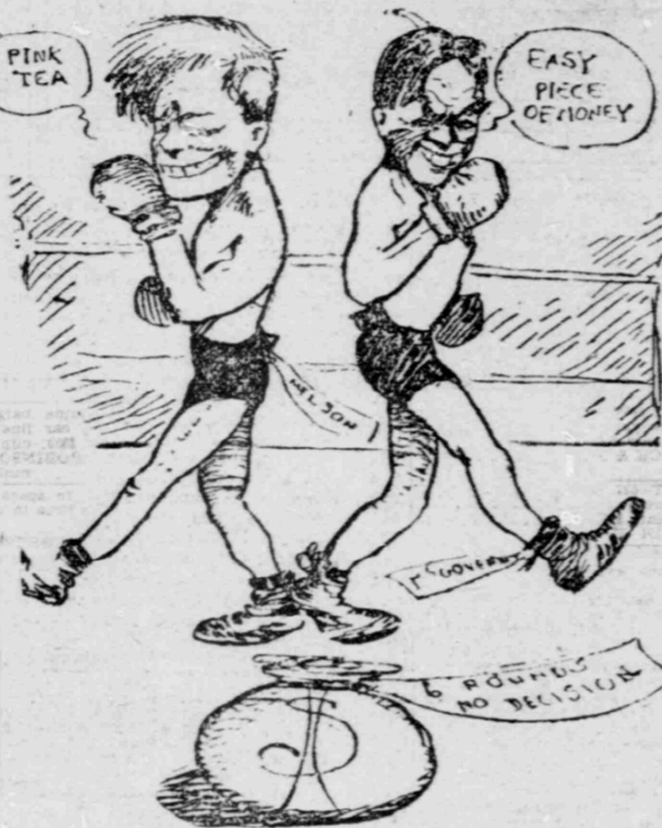

The Toledos are still on top in the District Duckpin League, with a lead of nearly a hundred points over the Jolly Fat Men's percentage of 752. Eureka are third with 796, and the Red Stars next with 564. Georgetown holds down the cellar position with 188 nearly 150 points less than the Arlington quint.

McKnew and Schmidt are having it out for first honors in the individual list. The former is first with 34.6, a lead of only 2 over the latter, who in turn is pushed hard for second by Everett, who has an average of 33.3. Bennett is next on the list with an average of 32, and Ball and Fenton are fighting it out for last place, with 73 and 77 respectively.

PROFESSIONAL BASKETBALL
FLOURISHESWashington Golf Clubs
Prepare for TournamentsWork on Fair Greens Under Way—Travis
Expected to Enter Open Matches Here.
Women's Association Suggested.

The golf courses of Washington are being prepared for the spring tournaments and handicap events, which take place twice a week at Chevy Chase and as frequently at Columbia. The Washington Golf Club does not have as many members as the other clubs mentioned, because their membership is not as large and therefore weekly events for members are considered enough.

Columbia Club's Improvement.

The Columbia Golf Club has contemplated changes for a long time and this spring is taking time for the forelock. The first thing to be considered always is to have large first-class greens, and this is being done as rapidly as labor, skill and material can be secured to the best advantage for the club wishes to have its course in condition by the week before the open tournament in April.

Dr. Harban's Good Work.

Dr. W. S. Harban has been a great factor in obtaining notable golfers to enter the only event of its kind in Washington and great credit is certainly due him and his associates.

As yet the Washington Golf Club has not made any changes in its grounds, although Capt. E. M. Talcott expects the greatest season for matches and club events in its history. To Col. Henry May and Mr. Talcott is due the credit of keeping the club in the position it has always held in the golfing world.

The women members of the different golf and country clubs in and about the District could well form themselves into an associate body of their respective clubs and make plans for furthering their interests in sports in general. This way, more would be done for them. The women of Boston, New York and Philadelphia have a representative on many club committees, thereby advancing and taking care of many matters that would not come up before the governing body of that club if they are not pushed by some energetic worker. Only lately one of the M. G. A. clubs has elected women to its golf committee (not green committee) and house committee and the entertainment committee is made up of women entirely.

There are enough women at Chevy Chase who are fond of golf to start a golf association if Wilmington, Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk would join them in their undertaking. In other parts of the country women have associations with a large membership. Why not here, the Capital City of the nation?

Links on the Flats.

It could be called the Women's National Capital Golf Association, showing that it embraced Washington and vicinity, or the Women's Middle Atlantic Golf Association.

It has been suggested in the columns of The Times that a public golf course be established in Washington. A course could be laid out on the Potomac flats at a comparatively small cost and put in charge of a competent professional who would not only make and repair clubs, but would give lessons to the many hundreds who would undoubtedly take up the game.

After the day's work in confined offices and stores on the streets of every Scotch town, where there are links, men, women and children may be seen walking toward the golf course with their clubs under their arms. Would it not be a good exercise for all Washingtonians who cannot take up baseball or other more violent games, if a public course was established? Golfers are asked to write any suggestions to The Times Golf Department.

SOLDIER IN GOOD TRIM
TO MEET BOBBIE BAKERPhillips Postpones Match With Tyrrell
on Account of Latter's Illness—Preliminaries for Barracks Bouts.

Phillips, the soldier wrestler, who meets Bobbie Baker next Wednesday evening in the gymnasium at the Washington Barracks, is in good condition again and tips the scales at about 185 pounds.

His match with Harvey Tyrrell, which was to have been pulled off this week, he has had to postpone because Tyrrell is in no sort of condition. The soldier has arranged to have this bout on March 25, when it is thought Tyrrell will be himself again.

Patrick P. O'Connor will referee the match between the soldier and Baker next Wednesday. This match will be a finish bout for two falls. Already the arrangements for preliminaries are under way. Wakter and Lindemann, both of Washington Barracks, will meet in a fifteen-minute bout, and Nick Ross is looking for a man to wrestle him the best two out of three falls.

Phillips is anxious to make another match with Rob Roy Mackey. He feels that he is in much better trim than he was at the time of their last mix-up and will give a good account of himself. He will make an attempt to get Mackey to meet him at 148 pounds.

GRANT AND MUELLER
SET DATE FOR MATCH

Joe Grant, the welterweight champion of the South, will wrestle Max Mueller, the foreign star, who has a long string of victories to his credit and who is now wrestling in Baltimore, Tuesday evening, March 27, at Light Infantry Armory. The date and place were definitely settled last night.

Grant is in tip top condition and expects to put up the fight of his life when he goes up against Mueller. He met Mueller last Thursday in Baltimore and stayed with him fifteen minutes very successfully.

SPEEDY MCCHESNEY MATED.

LOUISVILLE, March 17.—McChesney was mated recently to his first mate at James B. Haggin's Elmerdott stud and in the course of the next two months he will be br to other noted young matrons there. Dick Welles, the holder of the world's record for one mile on a circular track, who is standing at Woodlawn, is the sire of a bay colt out of Lady Roiler, by Falsetto—imported Flom. This is the first foal of the wonderful son of King Eric—Teas' Over.

VIRGINIA WINS FROM RICHMOND COLLEGETakes First Game of Season by Heavy Hitting—Johnson Shows Up
Well in Box.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., March 17.—Virginia opened her baseball season today by defeating Richmond College 13 to 5. Despite the cold, quite a crowd witnessed the contest.

The game was won in the first inning. Virginia bunched hits off Miller, which, together with three errors, netted a total of eight runs. After this, both teams played listlessly.

Captain Graham, of the Virginia nine, tried out three of his pitchers. The best showing was made by Johnson, the star halfback on the football eleven. It was his initial appearance in the box, his regular position being at first base. Woodson put up a clever game at backstop in the absence of Chandler, who has a sprained ankle. Virginia fielded well throughout the contest. Score by innings:

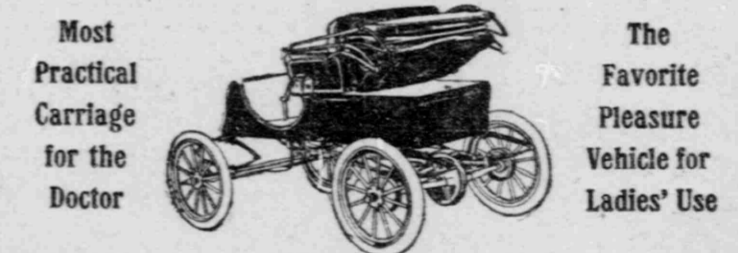

Virginia.....8 10 0 1 1 0 0 2—12 3 2
Richmond College.....2 0 0 1 2 0 0 0—5 3 6

Batteries: Virginia—Cole, Johnson, Su-son, and Woodson. Richmond College—
Miller and Clark. Umpire—Henline.

ELECTRICS

The beautiful, smooth Asphalt streets of the Capital City are unsurpassed for business and pleasure riding with an electric Automobile.

The POPE WAYERLEY ELECTRIC has a field distinctly its own, upon which no other type of motor car encroaches.

The POPE WAYERLEY ELECTRIC has proved its splendid qualities by six years of constant use in Washington.

Where you saw one or two Pope Waverleys a few years back you see hundreds today.

This beautiful and practical electric car has well earned the immense popularity it now enjoys in Washington.
